FRIDAY NOON MUSICALES

*First Unitarian Society's distinguished artist recital series has been a perennial gift to the greater Madison community since 1971. The music performed is mostly classical, but folk, jazz, and musical theatre styles are also presented. Musicales are presented most Fridays, October through May, 12:00-12:45 p.m., usually in the historic Frank Lloyd Wright-designed Unitarian Meeting House. Join us most Fridays October through May from 12:00–12:45 p.m. Musicales are free and open to the public; no ticket or reservation is required. ## FIRST UNITARIAN SOCIETY OF MADISON

First Unitarian Society of Madison is comprised of people seeking a supportive environment with kindred spirits to accompany them on their spiritual and ethical journey. We come from many backgrounds. Some of us are refugees from the world of orthodox religion; others are looking for an alternative to the soulless consumerism that has become the dominant "religion" of our time; still others are parents, educators, or activists who have a vision of a better world. We agree there is no single, superior path but instead many possibilities. We have chosen to spend at least part of that journey together in community.

A 50-50 free-will offering is gratefully received and is shared with Wisconsin Youth Symphony Orchestra's Music Makers program, which provides instruments, music lessons, and performance opportunities to students grades 3-12 whose families would otherwise not be able to afford them.

Only Two More Musicales This Season!
